Failure of His Bank Wrecked General Grant's Fortune.

Since Release From Prison He Lived Quietly.

New York, March 30 .- The death in a secluded Brooklyn suburb of James Dean Fish. 93 years old, became known through announcements in the apers. Fish was president of the newspapers. old Marine bank, the failure of which in 1884 was marked by scenes of dis-order never equalled in Wall street. The closing of the bank swept away the savings of General U. S. Grant and the investigation which followed sent Fish to Auburn prison and Ferdinand Ward.

Grant's partner, to Sing Sing. Fish and Ward planned by a series of daring speculative operations, to make the firm of Grant & Ward the most powerful financial institution in the country. The firm was originally composed of U. S. Grant, jr., and Mr. Ward. Then General Grant, who had retired from the presidency several years be-fore, bought a share in the business. General Grant, never a keen business man, was deceived, and finally there came the fitful fizzle in Wall street, followed by the crash.

After his release from prison on a pardon granted by President Cleveland, Fish lived in strict seclusion and spent much of his time in his library. He had a rare collection of books and old Aristocratic New York Suffragists Do Not Approve English Sisters.

New York, March 30.—At a big suffrage meeting attended by wealth and fashion at Carnegie hall last night, Mrs. Clarence Mackay, who presided, rapped militant suffragism and de-clared that this method of getting the vote had no part in the movement

Deep and serious injury has been done our cause by the shocking exhititions that women of London have recently made in their warfare," said Mrs. Mackay. "It is for us, in this state, to keep our propaganda work within the limits of reason, dignity and womanliness, and make it an ethical question, one which will elevate us all. Men have achieved political rights by violence, but that is no reason why we women should follow this example. American men have always treated American women with the reverence and honor they have descrived, and now is the time for the women of our state to prove the unity of our purpose so we must carry our bill next year by an overwhelming vote."
Following Mrs. Mackay, Mrs. Pearce Bailey asked for a collection. "We will not be so plebelan as to pass the hat," said Mrs. Bailey, "but I am going to ask for a $1,000 voluntary contribution to extend the work of our spelety."

In ten minutes Mrs. Bailey raised

The reports from Vermont indicate that the delegation from that state will be composed largely of Clark men.

Representative David E. Finley of South Cavalina men. South Carolina, who is vice chairman of the Democratic congressional com-mittee, expressed the opinion that the speaker will go into the Baltimore convention two to one stronger than any other candidate. Mr. Finley declared that the speaker will get a great many delegates from the southern states and that in his opinion Mr. Clark will be nominated beyond doubt.

HOME FOR FALLEN GIRLS

Unknown Woman Founds One in New York City.

New York, March 30.—A long needed want in New York city philanthropic circles will be filled by a retreat—a kind of "Good Hope Station," that has been opened in a residential section of the city for girls who have sucumbed to the temptations of Nev
